

European Cultural Policy Building an Identity

Thursday May 9 at 1:00 PM
Alachua County Library District – Headquarters
300 East University Avenue

Come hear Katalin Rac, former artistic director of TRAFÓ - House of Contemporary Arts in Budapest, Hungary, examine the ways in which the European Union envisions the role of culture. During the past decade, culture became an important representational tool of European integration. This talk honors Europe Day.

