2014 Schedule of Events

January 9, 4:30-5:45 pm, talk by Grzegorz Ekiert, Harvard University, “Three Generations of Research on Post-Communist Politics,” Atrium, Ustler Hall

January 13, 6:30-7:30 pm, talk by Valerie Bunce, Cornell University, “Waves of Popular Challenges to Authoritarian Rulers: 1989, the Color Revolutions, and the Arab Uprisings,” The Thomas Center

January 15, 3:45-5:00 pm, Gallery talk – Photographer Tomasz Zerek & Jack Hutchens, Visiting Lecturer of Polish Studies, The Harn Museum of Art

January 16, 4:00-5:00 pm, Gallery talk – Photographer Maria Kapajeva & Galina Rylkova, Professor of Russian Literature, The Harn Museum of Art

January 17, TBA, talk by Anna Muller, University of Michigan, “Mother Solidarity: Anna Walentynowicz’s Path to Opposition – An Exercise in Memory Studies,” TBA

January 22, 7:30-9:00 pm, film screening, documentary “In the Name of Love: Modern Day Mail Order Brides,” The Wooly, downtown Gainesville

February 20, 3:00-4:00 pm, talk by Agnes Szokolszky, University of Szeged, Hungary, “Reclaiming History: A Brief Look at Hungarian Psychology,” Keene-Flint Hall Conf Room

February 21, TBA, talk by Tamas Fellegi, former Minister of National Development, Hungary, “Hungary, the IMF, and the European Union,” TBA

April 5, 11:00-6:00 pm, Viva Europe!, Bo Diddley Community Plaza

May 11, 3:00-5:00 pm, opening of “Getting to Know Europe,” Oral History project with East Side High School and the Samuel Proctor Oral History Program, opening remarks Professor Paul Ortiz, The Thomas Center