UF in Poland

European Studies
Summer B: June 30-August 10, 2013

About the Program
Seize a unique opportunity to study in four of Poland’s most renowned cities. You will spend three weeks in Kraków studying Polish language and culture at Jagiellonian University (JU), one of Europe’s oldest. You will also participate in an interdisciplinary humanities seminar that begins in Kraków before moving on to Wrocław for one week and Warsaw for one week. The final week will be in Gdańsk in a workshop organized by two local museums. Immerse yourself in Polish culture and visit castles, cafés, and mountains, and be a witness to the ongoing growth of new Europe.

About the Location
Kraków boats one of the best-preserved medieval city centers in Europe. Wrocław, a city of islands and bridges, is known as the Venice of Poland. Warsaw is the booming economic and political capital of the new Poland, and Gdańsk is the birthplace of Solidarity and an epicenter of Polish memory.

Excursions
Exciting excursions include visits to the Tatra Mountains, the Wieliczka Salt Mine, and the Auschwitz Concentration Camp.

Housing
In Kraków, you will stay at Dom Akademicki Piast, a student dormitory. Students share a room with one other person and a bathroom between two rooms. Single rooms are available at an extra cost. In Wrocław, Warsaw, and Gdańsk you will stay in hostels.
