

Capitalism in Europe since 1945

Friday, April 12 and Saturday, April 13

Dauer 215

Key themes of the workshop include: the practice and theory of capitalism in postwar Europe; capitalism, the European Union, and the foundation for an integrated Europe; the neo-liberal turn of capitalism in the 1970s; the transition to capitalism in post-socialist states and enlargement; crises of capitalism.

For more info, go to http://www.ces.ufl.edu/JMCE/workshops/workshop_13_0412_agenda.shtml

- Friday 3:00 pm – Sheryl Kroen, University of Florida: “The Recovery: Arguments for Capitalism before its Triumph. Snapshots from 1951”
- Friday 7:30 pm – Herman Schwartz, University of Virginia: “From (US) financial crisis to eurocrisis: Why are American houses connected to Europe’s internal imbalances?”
- Saturday 9:30 am – Geoff Eley, University of Michigan: “What Changed in the 1970s? Neoliberalism, Social Goods, and the Strong State”
- Saturday 11:30 am – Dorothee Bohle, Central European University, Budapest, Hungary: “After the Cold War: Extending Europe’s Neoliberal Order Eastwards”
- Saturday 2:30 pm: Round Table discussion

Education and Culture DG

Lifelong Learning Programme