

Polish 2220 – POL2220 (18469), section 29HH
Intermediate Polish 1, 4 credits
Fall 2021

Course Description

Intermediate Polish 1 (POL2220) is a course intended for the students who completed two semesters of Polish Language and Culture (POL1130 and POL1131) or can use the language at the equivalent level and have some understanding of Polish customs and history.

POL2220 is the first part, the first semester, of a two-part sequence. It will be most beneficial to your learning of the language to plan to take both semesters. At the same time, to take one semester is better than not to take any. POL 2220 and POL 2221 use the same textbook and work book.

Course goals

After completion of the course the student will be able to:

- Use commonly nouns, adjectives and numerals in all seven cases
- Conduct a short conversation on a familiar topic
- Use common verbs in past, future and present tense
- List several prominent figures in Polish history, literature, art, and filmography

Grading:

Attendance	5%
Exams	20%
Homework	15%
Class participation	10%
Quizzes	20%
Semester project	10%
Final Exam	20%

Total 100%

Class Participation and Attendance: A significant part of learning any foreign language is its spoken usage. A language does not exist in a vacuum. To that end, almost 15% of your final grade in Polish 2220 will be determined by your attendance and participation in the classroom.

Absence Policy: Whether excused or unexcused, after 5 absences your final grade will be docked 5%. After 10 absences you will be given a failing grade for the class. In a language class, it is vital that you are present and participate in class. Of course, this policy will be amended to accommodate religious holidays. Please speak with me if this concerns you.

Requirements for class attendance and make-up exams, assignments, and other work in this course are consistent with university policies that can be found at: <https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx>

Exams and Homework: There will be 2 tests over the most recently reviewed material during the semester. There will also be smaller vocabulary quizzes. Assigned homework is expected on the given due date. Late homework will be graded with 5% decrease for each day of delay. Unless I am notified in advance you cannot make up quizzes that you miss due to an absence.

Workbooks: Exercises to be handed in from your workbooks will be assigned as we proceed through the semester. You should keep up with the chapters on your own at home.

Final Exam: The final exam will be cumulative; covering everything we will have studied by then.

A note on any language learning: Most of the learning you will do will actually be accomplished on your own at home. Meeting for one hour a day (four days a week) can only do so much. You are expected to study and review what has been introduced during class time.

UF HONESTY POLICY

UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, “We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: “On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment.” The Honor Code (<http://www.dso.ufl.edu/scer/process/student-conduct-honorcode/>) specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. Furthermore, you are obligated to report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to appropriate personnel. If you have any questions or concerns, please consult with the instructor or TAs in this class

STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES

If you have a disability, you may qualify for special accommodations and auxiliary aids. In order for any needed accommodations to be implemented in a timely fashion, you need to contact the Disability Resource Center – 352-392-8565 – or talk to me as soon as possible. Any communication between students, DRC, and the instructor will be strictly confidential.

PRIVACY

Our virtual class sessions, if any, may be audio-visually recorded for students in the class to refer back. Students who participate with their camera engaged or utilize a profile image are agreeing to have their video or image recorded. If you are unwilling to consent to have your profile or video image recorded, be sure to keep your camera off and do not use a profile image. Likewise, students who un-mute during class and participate orally are agreeing to have their voices recorded. If you are not willing to consent to have your voice recorded during class, you will need to keep your mute button activated and communicate exclusively using the "chat" feature, which allows students to type questions and comments live. The chat will not be recorded or shared. As in all courses, unauthorized recording and unauthorized sharing of recorded materials are prohibited.

COMPORTMENT POLICY

While you should feel free to express your ideas, slurs and epithets based on race, ethnicity, gender, sexual orientation and preference, religious practice, etc. will not be tolerated. Any disruptive, obnoxious, or disrespectful behavior may result in dismissal from the classroom and other disciplinary action. I trust that we can all avoid such situations and create a safe classroom environment. This can be easily achieved through mutual respect for one another.

DISCLAIMER

Any part of this syllabus is subject to change, according to the needs and/or progression of the class. This syllabus is not exhaustive. I reserve the right to implement any reasonable methods not included in the syllabus if they serve the pedagogical purpose of the class.

Please review the Netiquette Guide for Online Courses for expected student behavior.
