Final Exam	30%
<hr/>
Total	100%

Class Participation and Attendance: A significant part of learning any foreign language is its spoken usage. A language does not exist in a vacuum. To that end, 15% of your final grade in Polish 2221 will be determined by your attendance and participation in the classroom.

Absence Policy: Whether excused or unexcused, after 5 absences your final grade will be docked 5%. After 10 absences you will be given a failing grade for the class. If you already know that you will have to miss 10 classes this semester maybe it will be a better option to take the course next semester. This policy will be amended to accommodate religious holidays. Please speak with me if this concerns you.)

Requirements for class attendance and make-up exams, assignments, and other work in this course are consistent with university policies that can be found at: <https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx>

Exams and Homework: There will be 2 tests over the most recently reviewed material during the semester. There will also be vocabulary quizzes and lesson assessments. Assigned homework is expected on the given due date. Late homework will not be graded. Unless I am notified in advance you cannot make up quizzes that you miss due to an absence.

Workbooks: Exercises to be handed in from your workbooks will be assigned as we proceed through the semester. You should keep up with the chapters on your own at home.

Final Exam: The final exam will be cumulative; covering everything we will have studied by then.

A note on any language learning: Most of the learning you will do will actually be accomplished on your own at home. Meeting for one hour a day (four days a week) can only do so much. You are expected to study and review what has been introduced during class time. If you want to learn Polish you will have to do extra work at home.

I trust that we can all avoid such situations and create a safe classroom environment. This can be easily achieved through mutual respect for one another.

PRIVACY

Our virtual class sessions, if any, may be audio-visually recorded for students in the class to refer back. Students who participate with their camera engaged or utilize a profile image are agreeing to have their video or image recorded. If you are unwilling to consent to have your profile or video image recorded, be sure to keep your camera off and do not use a profile image. Likewise, students who un-mute during class and participate orally are agreeing to have their voices recorded. If you are not willing to consent to have your voice recorded during class, you will need to keep your mute button activated and communicate exclusively using the "chat" feature, which allows students to type questions and comments live. The chat will not be recorded or shared. As in all courses, unauthorized recording and unauthorized sharing of recorded materials are prohibited.
