Course Information

This is a 1-credit course designed for advanced and heritage learners of Turkish. It will empower your language skills and globo-local and cultural knowledge of Türkiye by addressing select themes in cinematography, TV series, and social media productions since the 1960s. With Dr. Sahin's help, you will also create a special project relating to your interests and career paths. By the end of the program, you will communicate in Turkish with precision and analyze Turkish culture with confidence.

Course Objectives

Throughout the course, students will:

- Analyze authentic texts and audio-visual productions in Turkish,
- Develop a nuanced understanding of artistic and colloquial expressions,
- Acquire and practice ways to express their views relating to Turkish cultural representations,
- Recognize and discuss the historical, geographical, and socio-cultural roots of modern Turkish cinema and its place in world cinema, and,
- Develop a final project with the instructor on a topic of their choice that may relate to their areas of personal interest or career path.

Course Requirements

Required textbook

All sources [will be] available on the e-learning website. There are no additional fees for this course and required materials.

Prerequisites

Intermediate Turkish or the instructor's approval.

Materials/Supply Fees

There is no supply fee for this course.

Course Policies

Requirements for make-up exams, assignments, and other work in this course are consistent with university policies that can be found at here.

Coursework and Assignments

This course includes viewing and reading assignments as well as live or recorded lectures. Be willing, engaged, and punctual: attend meetings, watch recordings, participate, and complete your assignments on time.

- Attendance and participation. Attend the weekly meeting in person (or via zoom) and engage with class on discussion board on the e-learning website (we will carry our discussion over to our GroupMe page in module 2).
- Homework synopsis. Paragraph-long synopsis on pillar shows will return with the instructor's constructive feedback to help you improve your writing skills.
- Final project. The final project will be a take-home assignment. In advance instructions will be provided.

Please note that all assignments must be completed by the date indicated on the syllabus and will not be rescheduled or accepted late. Requests of any special accommodations must be made to the instructor in writing and in advance. Feel free to discuss any of your requirements or assignments with your professor. Additionally, the instructor reserves the right to make changes to this syllabus as needed during the course of the semester. As much advance warning as possible will be provided to students. Changes can be made to the schedule, assigned reading or other aspects as deemed necessary. No changes will be made to grading scale or core UF policies as noted above.

Policy on Late and Make-up Work: Students should contact the instructor for late and make-up work. In case of emergency, instructor must be notified as soon as possible.

Grade Return Timing: Instructor will evaluate assigned work in a timely manner; likewise, students can expect to receive grades on mid-term within 10 days and final examination in one week.

More information on grades and grading policies is at here

Class Attendance and Make-Up Policy

Attendance and participation are required for success. They not only constitute 15% of your grade. Repeated absences also affect your learning the language as well as your performance on exams and quizzes since they will be based on lectures and discussions. Missing class likewise means missing participation and falling behind in other assignments.

According to the Office of the University Registrar, “acceptable reasons for absence from class include illness, serious family emergencies, special curricular requirements (e.g., judging trips, field trips, and professional conferences), military obligation, severe weather conditions, religious holidays, and participation in official university activities such as music performances, athletic competition or debate. Absences from class for court-imposed legal obligations (e.g., jury duty or subpoena) must be excused.” (for further information about the University of Florida’s attendance policy, see the current Undergraduate Catalogue here)

UF Policies

University Policy on Accommodating Differently Abled Students

Differently abled students requesting accommodations should first register with the Disability Resource Center (352-392-8565) by providing appropriate documentation. Once registered, students will receive an accommodation letter that must be presented to the instructor when requesting accommodation. Differently abled students should follow this procedure as early as possible in the semester.

University Policy on Academic Conduct

UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, “We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honesty and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: "On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment." The Honor Code specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. Furthermore, you are obligated to report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to appropriate personnel. If you have any questions or concerns, please consult with the instructor in this class.

Netiquette and Communication Courtesy

All members of the class are expected to follow rules of common courtesy during, before, and after class, in all email messages, threaded discussions, and chats.

Students are expected to arrive to class on time and behave in a manner that is respectful to the instructor and to fellow students. Please avoid the use of cell phones and restrict eating to outside of the classroom. Opinions held by other students should be respected in discussion, and conversations that do not contribute to the discussion should be held at minimum, if at all.
