Intermediate Turkish 1 (4 credits)

TUR 2220 sections 2TRO, 2TRF, 2TUO, 2TSL
University of Florida, Fall 2024

Course Description

This language course is the first semester of one-year intermediate Turkish sequence at the University of Florida. It is for students who took introductory Turkish or learned Turkish in non-academic environments. Throughout the course, students will improve and practice their communicative skills in listening, reading, speaking, and writing, all the while exploring culture, geography, and history of Turkey. They will also work with exchange partners at Florida. By the end of the program, students can communicate in Turkish with moderate confidence and precision. The prerequisite is one-year beginning Turkish sequence or the instructor's approval.

Course Objectives

At the end of the course, students will be able to:

- Produce strings of sentences and basic narratives in a meaningful conversation,
- Satisfy routine social demands and basic work requirements,
- Handle the most normal, high-frequency conversational situations such as extensive yet casual conversations about current events, work, family, and autobiographical information,
- Draw some everyday conversations – despite some difficulty understanding native speakers in real-time situations, and,
- Develop a nuanced understanding of the historical, geographical, and social roots of Turkish language and culture.

Grading Policies and Grade Scale

This course includes reading and writing assignments as well as lecture and team projects. Be willing, engaged, and punctual: attend the lectures, participate in group projects, and complete your reading/writing assignments on time.

Grading in this course takes place within the following parameters.

- Student work will be graded based on quality and within the point range given below. There will be no curving practices; extra credit may be available for those interested.
 - Grading in this class is consistent with UF policies available here.
- Assignment Values:
 - Attendance and participation (15 pts). Attend all the meetings and participate conversation on discussion board on the elearning website (we will carry our discussion over to a what's app group to be created on Week 3). Also worth noting is that 5% of your final grade will be based on your participation in weekly virtual meetings.
 - Homework drills (10 pts). Homework is the key to learning a second language. Be eager to do routine drills including assignments on the workbook, keeping a journal from module 2 onward, and working in smaller groups.
 - Group research and presentation (5 pts). A short essay will be written as a group project and presented under the supervision of the instructor. Guidelines will be provided later.
 - Quizzes (15). Quizzes will follow reviews of each comprehensive unit.
 - Mid-term (25 pts). Detailed instructions will be provided.
 - Final examination (30 pts). The final examination will be partly cumulative; the details of this exam will be addressed in the last module.
 - Please note that all assignments must be completed by the date indicated on the syllabus and will not be rescheduled, or, accepted late. Requests of any special accommodations must be made to the instructor in writing and in advance. Feel free to discuss any of your requirements or assignments with your professor. Additionally, the instructor reserves the right to make changes to this syllabus as needed during the course of the semester. As much advance warning as possible will be provided to students. Changes can be made to the schedule, assigned reading or other aspects as deemed necessary. No changes will be made to grading scale or core UF policies as noted above.
- Policy on Late and Make-up Work: Students should contact the instructor for late and make-up work. In case of emergency, instructor must be notified as soon as possible.
- Grade Return Timing: Instructor will evaluate assigned work in a timely manner; likewise, students can expect to receive grades on mid-term within 10 days and final examination in one week.
- Point Range for this Class is as follows.

Letter Grade	A	A-	B+	B	B-	C+	C	C-	D+	D	D-	F

UF Policies Shaping This Course

This course is aligned with the UF policies below.

Contact Hours: "Contact Hours" refers to the hours per week in which students are in contact with the instructor, excluding office hours or other voluntary contact. The number of contact hours in this course equals the number of credits the course offers.

Workload: As a Carnegie I, research-intensive university, UF is required by federal law to assign at least 2 hours of work outside of class for every contact hour. Work done in these hours may include reading/viewing assigned material and doing explicitly assigned individual or group work, as well as reviewing notes from class, synthesizing information in advance of exams or papers, and other self-determined study tasks.

Accommodation for Student with Disabilities: Students with disabilities who experience learning barriers and would like to request academic accommodations should connect with the disability Resource Center by visiting <https://disability.ufl.edu/students/get-started/>. This class supports the needs of different learners; it is important for students to share their accommodation letter with their instructor and discuss their access needs as early as possible in the semester.

Statement Regarding Evaluations: Students are expected to provide professional and respectful feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing course evaluations online via GatorEvals. Guidance on how to give feedback in a professional and respectful manner is available from the Gatorevals website. Students will be notified when the evaluation period opens, and can complete evaluations through the email they receive from GatorEvals, in their Canvas course menu under GatorEvals, or via the evaluation system. Summaries of course evaluation results are available to students at the public results website.

Statement Regarding Course Recording: Our class sessions may be audio visually recorded for students in the class to refer back to, and for use of enrolled students who are unable to attend live. Students who participate with their camera engaged or utilize a profile image are agreeing to have their video or image recorded. If you are unwilling to consent to have your profile or video image recorded, keep your camera off and do not use a profile image. Likewise, students who un-mute during class and participate verbally are agreeing to have their voices recorded. If you are unwilling to consent to have your voice recorded during class, you will need to keep your mute button activated and communicate exclusively using the "chat" feature, which allows students to type questions and comments live. The chat will not be recorded or shared. As in all courses, unauthorized recording and unauthorized sharing of recorded materials is prohibited.

Additional Course Policies and Information

The following are additional policies that shape the administration of this course.

Class Attendance and Make-Up Policy

Attendance and participation are required for success. They not only constitute 10% of your grade. Repeated absences also affect your performance on exams and quizzes since they will be based on lectures and discussions. Missing class likewise means missing participation and falling behind in other assignments.

According to the Office of the University Registrar, "acceptable reasons for absence from class include illness, serious family emergencies, special curricular requirements (e.g., judging trips, field trips, and professional conferences), military obligation, severe weather conditions, religious holidays and participation in official university activities such as music performances, athletic competition or debate. Absences from class for court-imposed legal obligations (e.g., jury duty or subpoena) must be excused.”

For further information about the University of Florida’s attendance policy, please see the current Undergraduate Catalogue

University Honesty Policy

UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, “We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: “On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment.” The Honor Code specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. Furthermore, you are obligated to report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to appropriate personnel. If you have any questions or concerns, please consult with the instructor.

Class Demeanor

Students are expected to join class on time and behave in a manner that is respectful to the instructor and to fellow students. Please avoid the use of cell phones and restrict eating during meetings. Opinions held by other students should be respected in discussion, and conversations that do not contribute to the discussion should be held at minimum, if at all.

Course Evaluation

Students are expected to provide feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing online evaluations here. Evaluations are typically open during the last two or three weeks of the semester, but students will be given specific times when they are open. Summary results of these assessments are available to students here.
