

The Changing Character of the Transatlantic Security Relationship: A panel discussion

March 21, 2011

Pugh Hall Ocora

6:30 p.m.

Introductions by Paul D'Anieri, Dean of the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences

“Double Veto Players on Transatlantic Security Relations: Turkey as an Outside Veto Player on the CSDP and Cyprus as an Outside Veto Player on NATO”

Oya Dursun-Özkanca, Department of Political Science, Elizabethtown College, PA

“NATO and the European Union”

Zachary Selden, Department of Political Science, University of Florida

“Concepts of Border Security: The EU and the US Compared”

Peter Hobbing, The Centre for European Policy Studies