

UF IN PRAGUE

EUROPEAN STUDIES | SUMMER B: JUNE 27 - AUGUST 8, 2026

COLLEGE INFORMATION

Center for European Studies

Courses are taught by UF and local faculty

PROGRAM

The Center for European Studies offers you an opportunity to make degree progress while exploring life in one of the most enchanting European capitals. Featured courses contextualize subject matter vis-à-vis your immediate surroundings: The UF course offers an introduction to the politics, history, and culture of East Central Europe in the 20th and 21st centuries, with a focus on Prague and the Czech Republic. The local course provides an opportunity to explore Prague in depth as a center of European art and culture over several centuries. Most courses taken in Prague count toward the Minor or Certificate in East-Central European Studies (ECES) or European Union Studies (EUS).

LOCATION

Prague, Czech Republic, is a modern, cosmopolitan city in an idyllic, historic setting. With spectacular Gothic and Baroque architecture, green hills and parks, bike trails along the river, and countless other attractions (castles, museums, galleries, churches, live music, plays, films, international and vegan-friendly cuisine), "Magic Prague" has something for everyone. You will especially enjoy its affordable prices and student discounts. Prague also provides easy access for travel to Vienna, Berlin, Krakow or Budapest.

EXCURSIONS

Four group excursions are included in the program fee: a guided walking tour of Prague's historical center; entry to Prague Castle; a guided walking tour of Prague under Communism; and a day trip to Terezin, a concentration camp disguised as a "model ghetto" in WWII. Optional excursions are also offered every Friday for an additional cost.

HOUSING

Students will be housed in 3-4 person apartments in a desirable section of the city, with easy access to stores and restaurants. The apartments will come with a kitchen, high-speed internet, laundry facilities on-site, and quick access to public transit.
